FASHIONPREP DESIGN ACADEMY

ONE DAY ACADEMY FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

RTC/748-01

Monday, April 9, 2012 (Spring Vacation) 9 A.M. – 2 P.M.

Instructor: Valentina Kova, a NYC fashion designer, adjunct faculty at Parsons, The New School for Design, and founder of FashionPrep.

Spend a day exploring and conquering the world of fashion design and the processes that drive it! FashionPrep Design courses are designed for teens with a passion for fashion design and art.

- Discover fashion role models - words of fashion wisdom from iconic fashion designers
- Build drawing and conceptual skills through live model drawing and design sketching
- Discuss fashion history, fashion designers, the emergence of trends and the contemporary youth culture
- Explore the world of textiles and fabric characteristics
- Learn what a fashion designer does every day
- Start a professional portfolio of your Dream Collection from inspiration and research to processes and implementation!

Course fee: $ 99.00      Fee for Materials: $25

Location: RTC Institute at New York International University Center, 371 State Route 17A, Tuxedo, N.Y.

Our new air-conditioned facility is located in a park-like setting.
